Hamburg / Bangalore, 25 June 2008

Jayanti Group's Coffee Division, which is the leading green coffee processing and export trading operation in India will enter into a Partnership with Neumann Kaffee Gruppe. The Companies have signed a Memorandum of Understanding to this effect.

Neumann Kaffee Gruppe has a strong global presence with own operations in 28 different countries. With a share of 7 % of coffee exports from origin and 15 % of coffee imports in consuming countries it is the leading green coffee specialist in the world.

This joint venture will operate under the name "NKG Jayanti Coffee Pvt. Ltd." Milan Shah with the current team will continue to manage the business.

This step will combine the strengths of the two companies and will provide Neumann Gruppe an excellent opportunity to partner, for the first time in India, the 6th largest coffee producing country in the world.

Neumann's sole business is coffee and services are offered on a large variety of steps of the green coffee value chain, from farming and farm management through exporting and importing trade to any commercial activities that the roasting industry of all sizes worldwide require. Jayanti is a diversified group and has a strong presence in Spice and Tea markets besides Coffee.

With this Partnership, Jayanti Group will be able to expand its global reach and bring the unique expertise of Neumann Kaffee Gruppe to Indian farmers and showcase the diversity of Indian Coffee more profoundly internationally.
